

Understanding Men's Ministry

Research shows that those churches with an intentional plan to “make disciples” are growing churches.

The Capital District United Methodist Men is offering a course based on Patrick Morley's “No Man Left Behind” and provides an excellent model for intentional disciple development.

The course includes:

- The process of men moving through stages in their Christian journey.
- The three organizational pillars needed to support the ministry model.
- The creation of a customized vision for the men in your church and creation of a plan of action.
- A create-capture-sustain engine to drive the ministry.
- Background material that integrates the Model and explains how to attract non-Christian men into the church and move them along into discipleship

This 12-hour course is being offered on October 16-17, 2015 at Methodist Men's Ministry Center (3MC) located at 676 Community Drive Goldsboro, NC. The class will meet from 6:00pm to 9:00 pm Friday evening and from 8:00 am-5:00 pm on Saturday. The cost of the course is $30.00 which includes a workbook (not the “No Man Left Behind” book), snacks, light breakfast and lunch.

To get the most out of this class it is recommended that you read “No Man Left Behind” prior to the course but not required. The books can be purchased on line at several sites. It is recommended to do so through the Cokesbury site through the NCCUMC Media Center: Print Hardcover or eBook be used.

It is recommended that a pastor, men's ministry leader, and one or two other men on your team attend the training together but not required. This course is open to anyone interested.

This course qualifies as an Advanced Lay Servant Course.
